The scene of the pain of the Korean War and the national conflict

Imjingak is one of the most famous tourist attractions in Korea, which was developed right after the South-North Joint statement in 1972.

Annually, more than 6 million people from Korea and overseas visit Imjingak. With the various relics and monuments of the war in Imjingak, the visitors can see the pain of the Korean War which broke out on June 25, 1950, as well as the grief of the national conflict.
